

EDUCATION & ASSOCIATIONS

Bachelor of Arts, May 1991
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Writers Guild of America East, Member 2008-Present
Represented by Verve Talent Agency & Madhouse Entertainment, Los Angeles, CA

DOCUMENTARY

Director/Producer, Blood, Sweat & Tears: A Basketball Exorcism (2016)
Feature-length documentary that explores the issues of race, class, anti-Semitism and police profiling that seethed below the surface of a New Jersey high school championship game in 1987.

Director/Producer, Unknown Soldier: Searching for a Father (HBO, 2005-2007)
Feature-length documentary for HBO's America Undercover.

Producer, A Little Bit of Both (AmeriCorps, 2007)
Educational documentary for federally funded service-learning program. Taught urban school children to create a short film exploring racial tensions in their hometown.

SCREENWRITING, FILM & VIDEO

Screenwriter, No Such Thing (DisruptiveLA, 2016)
Original feature-length horror film.

Director/Producer, Nylabone Chews Best (Nylabone, 2014-Present)
Series of online advertisements for international pet toy and treat brand.

Screenwriter, Mr. Allen (Wayfare Entertainment 2014)
Original feature-length horror film.

Screenwriter, Anthem (Pixofactor Entertainment, 2012)
Adaptation of Ayn Rand novella into animated mini-series and graphic novel.

Director, Engine To Turn (Fantasy Records, 2010)
Music video for Grammy-nominated alt-country artist Tift Merritt, filmed on The Highline, NY, NY.

Screenwriter, The Seems (20th Century Fox, 2008)
Adaptation of the original children's book series for Shawn Levy, director of Night at the Museum.

Producer/Director, 1-6, (MTV, 1998-99)
Series of black & white, silent comedy shorts. Winner of the Best Short Film award at the 1998 North Carolina Film Festival. Aired as a series of 30-second interstitials on MTV.

Producer, Winterlude, (1998)
Short film based upon the story of the same name from Voices of the Xiled. Winner of the Best Short Film award at the 1998 Hamptons Film Festival. Starring Donal Logue and Amanda Peet.